"The Woman in Gold" is the unofficial name for Portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer I, a painting by Gustav Klimt. Adele's husband, Ferdinand Bloch-Bauer, commissioned the painting in 1903, when Adele Bloch-Bauer was 25 years old.

The painting was completed in 1907 and is considered one of the most recognizable portraits in art history. The Nazis seized the painting during World War II. The painting is on permanent display at the Neue Galerie in New York City.
