- Assorted Toppings and Dressings
- Hummus and Pita
- Dessert – Tu B'Shevat Seder plate with olives, dates, grapes, figs and pomegranates.

Tu B'Shevat – New Year of Trees

The assortment of fruits on the Seder plate is associated with the seven species of Israel mentioned in Deuteronomy 8:8. Tu B'Shevat marks the beginning of the fruit-bearing season in Israel. Tu B'Shevat reminds us that man is nurtured by deep roots, as far back as Abraham and Sarah. Man, like the trees, reaches upwards to the heavens while standing firmly on the ground. When we do this correctly, we produce fruits – mitzvah (good deeds) – that benefit the world.

Program After Dinner:

Susan Dubin will present “Tu B'Shevat in Theresienstadt – Spiritual Resistance During the Holocaust.” Susan, a Sun City Anthem resident and a member of the Havurah Club, has spoken to the club before. We welcome her back to speak to us. She is a library consultant to the Sperling Kronberg Mack Holocaust Resource Center and has worked with the World Federation of Jewish Child Holocaust Survivors and Descendants. She was named “Jewish Educator of the Year” by Jewish Nevada for 2020.
